

CIRCUS Proves that children are a great blessing. They give us an excuse to get in under the big top.

The Evening Herald

TRIBUNE-CITIZEN,
Vol. 26, No. 56.

DON'T Wince at the rise in the price of your paper. It makes us feel worse than you do.

COMMISSION WILL SEE IF INTERESTS HAVE BEEN BEHIND RAIDS ON BORDER

To be Empowered to Go Into Mexico After Proof That Sinister Plotters Tried to Bring on Intervention.

MEXICANS DELIGHTED BY BRANDEIS' APPOINTMENT

Regard Him as Naturally Friendly Toward Revolutionary Movement; Secretary Lane Head of American Representatives.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire—Washington, Aug. 8.—Formal announcement was made today by Acting Secretary Polk of the acceptance of General Carranza's proposal for a joint international commission to set a solution of border disputes and other matters which had clarity relations between the United States and Mexico only the time and place for the conference remain to be decided.

Secretary Lane of the acting department will head the American commission, supported by Associate Justice Louis D. Brandeis of the supreme court, and a third commissioner whose name will be announced later. A telegram asking the chairman to serve was sent today by President Wilson, and his name will be disclosed until he has accepted it received.

The Mexican commissioners were named some days ago. Luis Cárdenas, minister of finance in the Carranza government, heading the delegation. This made necessary the appointment of a number of President Wilson's agents in the American commission.

Today's announcement followed a secret conference between Mr. Polk and General Arredondo, Carranza's immediate designate. Final assurance was given by Mr. Arredondo that General Carranza was in complete accord with suggestions of the Washington government that the decision of the commissioners be given the greatest possible scope. The announcement said that his government regarded its request as a full assurance and acceptance of Secretary Polk's suggestion that the scope be extended.

At first the market closed slightly upward 8 cents at the start. December option touched $145 to $145, and December at $14 to $145.

Just before the close a fresh pulse in the market pushed prices up to nearly 12 cents advance in some cases. The big stimulus came from assertions that a large export business was in progress.

Changes, Aug. 8.—Wheat prices rose to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

own those in tracing the source of these raids. Without doubt it will have power to trace to the borders of, if necessary, into Mexico in following up its inquiry.

There have been intimations among members of the commission that the scope of the commission's power has been due to the hope that a way of giving constructive aid to the Carranza government could be found.

Secretary Lane has been in close touch with the Mexican situation ever since he entered the cabinet.

Mexicans here are known to be well pleased with the selection of Judge Brandeis. They believe that he has a natural sympathy with the purposes of the revolutionary movement in Mexico.

CROP REPORT LEADS TO AN EXCITING DAY IN THE WHEAT PIT

Fever to Buy Grows More Intense After Mid-day and Market Continues to Soar; Bare of Offerings at Times.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire—Chicago, Aug. 8.—At the top of the market session of today's session of the board of trade, wheat showed an advance of 16½ cents a bushel over night. The market throughout the session gave evidence of great tension owing to millions of inquiries in domestic crop losses officially confirmed and because of demands further losses indicated in Canada.

The market closed excited, 16½ cents higher, with September at $144 to $145, and December at $14 to $145.

Just before the close a fresh pulse in the market pushed prices up to nearly 12 cents advance in some cases. The big stimulus came from assertions that a large export business was in progress.

Changes, Aug. 8.—Wheat prices rose to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would be only 200,000,000 bushels, a shortage of 150,000,000 bushels under last year's total.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 9.—Minneapolis September wheat showed an advance of over 6½ cents this morning from the previous close.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 9.—On the federal crop report September wheat opened 2½ cents up at $144 and sold to $145. December opened 2½ cents up at $144 and sold up to $144½. December then bulged 1 cent to $145, then during durum advanced 7 cents to $145½, and December 7 cents to $145½.

Kansas City, Aug. 9.—All wheat options registered wild advances at the opening of the market today. May, which closed yesterday at $145, was quoted at $147 at the beginning of advance of 8½ cents and September was quoted at $146 as against 16½ cents yesterday.

Suffs Plant a Flag on Summit of Pike's Peak

By Evening Herald Leased Wire—Colorado Springs, Aug. 9.—As a climax to the weeks of preparation to the national conference of the nation's all-women's party, a meeting of prominent suffragists of the United States was held at the summit of Pike's peak this morning. The flag of suffrage was planted at the highest point of the peak, addresses were made by members of the party and enthusiasm for the conference which opens tomorrow was aroused to the highest pitch.

Miss Anna Martin addressed the banner of the organization to the principle of American liberty and the speedy adoption of the Susan B. Anthony amendment as a part of the constitution of the United States. Mrs. Miller referred to the dedication as a symbol of the cause of triumphant democracy.

A. B. Stickney, Famed Railroad Builder, Dead

By Evening Herald Leased Wire—St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 9.—A. B. Stickney, founder of the Chicago Great Western railroad, died at his home here this morning after an illness of one week. He had been in declining health for several years.

Members of the family and a number of friends were at the bedside when he died. Interment took place at the cemetery of the Chicago Great Western.

Changes, Aug. 8.—Wheat prices rose to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After making the rally of my price more intense, the market yesterday rose to 10 cents above yesterday's closing. December wheat closed at $14. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. A incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of wheat in the Canadian crop this season would

in later dealings the May delivery price to the phenomenal price of $145 a bushel, an extreme extent of 8½ cents over yesterday's final figure, and 16½ cents up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.